LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, March 28, 1888.

The within Roster has been carefully compiled, by authority of Governor THAYER and under the direction of Adjutant General A. V. COLE, from records now on file in the Adjutant General's Office, and from official information from other sources. The names have, as far as possible, been alphabetically arranged, and dates are corrected according to the best official data. They often differ in the original records themselves, and in such case I have taken the best authority after careful search, or the record made nearest the date of the event in question, such as monthly returns, etc. Names have also been carefully examined and the spelling thereof corrected from original enlistment papers, or from signatures found, as in clothing books, etc.

In case, therefore, of any question as to name or date arising as between that given in this book and any single original record or other paper, the book should be depended upon until careful search has verified it, or given additional and satisfactory proof of its error.

EDGAR S. DUDLEY,
First Lieutenant Second U. S. Artillery,
Compiler.
